If you used any material that was not your own you must tell your reader in a bibliography or with in-text citations.

- paraphrased paragraphs
- online images
- “quotations”
- video clip
- words
- charts
- diagrams
- ideas
- paraphrased ideas
What’s a citation?

A "citation" is the way you tell your readers that certain material in your work came from somewhere or someone else. It also gives your readers the information necessary to find that source again.
Citation examples

"Only a baptized man (vir) validly receives sacred ordination."

The Lord Jesus chose men (viri) to form the college of the twelve apostles, and the apostles did the same when they chose collaborators to succeed them in their ministry....The Church recognizes herself to be bound by this choice made by the Lord himself. For this reason the ordination of women is not possible. (CCC#1577)
“Every living thing that moved on land perished—birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind.” (Genesis 7:21 NRSV)
