Task

Goal: To investigate Kiribati in relation to the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

Role: You are a journalist for the "Mater Times" an electronic publication.

Audience: Mater Christi Community

Situation: The Sisters of the Good Samaritan run a mission on Kiribati and every year they invite people connected with the Good Samaritans to visit their developing country and see the difference that the Sisters are making.

You have been asked to research the progress and challenges faced by Kiribati and its community. Along with this research you must document the experiences of members of the Mater Christi Community who have visited Kirabati. You must collate all information and report back on how Kiribati is developing given that they have just been taken off the "Least Developed Countries" list; reflecting on the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

Students need to be mindful of "fake news" that exists and show that their sources for their work have been authenticated.

Product: A journalistic document (article, news video or radio audio segment) which reports back on the 'state of play' on Kiribati.

Academic Honesty

Students are reminded that all work submitted must be their own and each use of the words, work or ideas of another person, whether written, oral or visual, (hard copy and/or electronic materials) must be acknowledged in the body of their work and the bibliography.
